Announcement of death:

Dr. William V. Keating, Philadelphia, April 18, 1894, æt. 71.

On motion, the President was authorized to appoint a suitable person to prepare the usual obituary notice.

Mr. Price offered the following:

Resolved, That a Committee of three members of the Society be appointed to confer with the representatives of other societies and organizations, with reference to a public dinner which it has been proposed to give the Hon. Frederick Fraley, the President of this Society, on the 28th day of May, the ninetieth anniversary of his birth.

The following Committee was appointed: Messrs. Price, Vaux and Dr. Brinton.

Mr. Bache read an article explanatory of the Brownian movements. Dr. Brinton made some remarks on the subject.

Pending nominations 1273, 1274, 1276 to 1298, and new nominations 1299 and 1300 were read.

Mr. Prime offered the following resolution, which was seconded by Dr. Brinton:

Resolved, That a Committee of five members be appointed by the President to take into consideration the state of the Society, and to report whether any, and if any, what measures it may be expedient to take for increasing the resident membership of the Society, and promoting its usefulness; and whether in effectuating these purposes it may be necessary to amend the existing laws and regulations.

The matter was discussed by Messrs. Prime, Brinton, Price, Horn and Lyman.

On motion, the resolution was adopted.

The President subsequently appointed the following Committee:

Frederick Prime, Chairman, J. Sergeant Price, George H. Horn, William P. Tatham, J. G. Rosengarten.

And the Society was adjourned.
